

8.1 (pg356)

Three-Dimensional Figures

A solid is a three-dimensional figure that encloses a space.

A polyhedron is a solid whose faces are all polygons.

An edge is a line segment where two faces intersect.

A face is a flat surface of a polyhedron.

A vertex is a point where 3 or more edges meet.

